

The floor plan of the first floor of the Concertgebouw Amsterdam shows a circular concert hall with a stage at the bottom. The seating area is divided into sections, with red lines and numbers (21, 27, 28) highlighting specific zones. The stage area includes a piano, a podium, and a stage manager's box. The foyer (foyer P=0) is located around the hall, with exits marked by green arrows. The plan also shows the entrance (entree) and various service areas like restrooms and a cloakroom.
